

Praise for Lavish Grace

“Kathy has beautifully woven an account of how the grace God so incredibly pours into us, and practically shares with us ways we can exhibit grace to others. You will be blessed by this book! I know I was.”

“In Lavish Grace, Kathy Howard gives us wisdom, grace upon grace, by walking the reader through an accurate, life-changing, and practical view of God's rich, elaborate, extravagant, generous, and amazing grace! If you want to renew, revive, and rejuvenate your life with God's lavish grace, then the pages of this book will shower you with hope and help you embrace the exuberant, abundant grace-filled life we all long for!”

—Pam Farrel, author of 7 Simple Skills for Every Woman: Success in Keeping It All Together and Men Are Like Waffles, Women Are Like Spaghetti

“The more I move through life, the more I recognize the unending, overwhelming need for grace in my relationship with God and others. Kathy Howard does more than point out our need for grace; she teaches us to not only pour it out, but also to lap it up. A must read for a needy world.”

—Kathi Lipp speaker and author of Clutter Free

“Grace—that unearned, undeserved gift from God that washes over us each day as a follower of Christ. Kathy Howard helps us grasp the depth of this gift through a study of the life of the Apostle Paul and stories of women today who have personally experienced God's grace. Her 9-week interactive study will leave you with a deeper understanding of just how much God loves each of us as demonstrated through His gift of grace.”

—Wanda Lee, executive director, National WMU®

“Grace is not a churchy, cliché topic that cleaned up, nice people sing about on Sundays from a hymnal. Instead, grace is the aggressive, offensive, complicated, and complete gift of Jesus that every soul has to contend with for both our eternal salvation and daily frustrations. God's love is not contingent on your goodness, and His forgiveness cannot be constrained by your rebellion. It's unsearchable. Impossible to comprehend, yet fully accessible and purposed to impact and inform the way you believe, live, and love others. Lavish Grace will help you navigate this critical dialog as the study takes you by the hand and leads you straight to God's Word. If you're ready to understand and embrace this life-altering love in a fresh way, then don't hesitate to take this grace-walk with Kathy.”

“Kathy Howard pinpoints what each of us needs—a fresh awareness of God’s grace. Through the eyes of Paul, a self-claimed ‘chief of sinners,’ she helps us recognize, rest in, and share God’s lavish grace.”

—Debbie Taylor Williams, national Bible teacher and author of seven books, including, If God is In Control, Why Am I a Basket Case?

“Lavish Grace is packed with powerful stories of changed lives. This Bible study explodes page after page with inspiration like, ‘His grace is in such abundance we cannot hold it all. It overflows our ability to contain it.’ What is this all about? How is grace able to remove guilt? Shame? Who is this God, who gives us such grace? When you complete this book, you will understand the boundlessness of God’s love from a new perspective. His rich outpouring of grace is the very foundation of God’s salvation plan for us. Kathy Howard has put her whole heart into this book and shares a depth of knowledge of Scripture that will bless your heart.”

—Joneal Kirby, author and founder of Heartfelt Ministries

“Kathy Howard’s new book, Lavish Grace, had me at ‘grace.’ It’s one of my heartbeat topics! And her book did not disappoint. You’ll love how she deftly combines what Paul writes about grace, with true-to-life application steps. She not only shares accounts of people from Bible times, but what people of today have faced as they learned to navigate the circumstances and character of grace in their own lives. The subtitle of the book is ‘poured out, poured through, and overflowing.’ That’s exactly how I’ve seen Kathy reflect a life of lavish grace—enough to share with others on their own grace journeys.”
